Dickens' Dramas.

That eminent dramatic critic, Mr. Horace Greeley, has pronounced Charles Dickens one of the most admirable actors he had ever met with in his numerous and busy recollections of the stage; and possibly by design, certainly in the construction of his novels and stories, and in the marked distinctness and individuality of his character, Mr. Dickens has furnished an infinite amount of matter admirably adapted for dramatization. Nearly all, if not all, of his novels and Christmas stories have been dramatized in England. Harry Rivers "did" "The Tale of Two Cities;" Fred Fox Cooper produced a stage version of "Master Humphrey's Clock;" Edward Sterling dramatized "Martin Chuzzlewit," "The Pickwick Club," and "The Old Curiosity Shop;" and "No Thoroughfare," by Mr. Dickens and Wilkie Collins is still on the boards at the Adelphi, in London, with Mr. Fechter as Obenreiser. In this city a not over-successful version of "No Thoroughfare" has been attempted at Banvard's, and another play founded on the same story has been played in Boston. It is understood that Ly-an-l-by Mr. Wallack will bring out Messrs. Dickens and Collins' dramatization of their own joint-story. The presence of Mr. Dickens in this country has given quite a stimulus to the production of old and new Dickens dramas.

THE PICKWICK PAPERS.

We have lately noticed the production of a new rendering of the "Pickwick Papers" at the New York Theatre, and we gave at the same time the cast when Pickwick was produced at the Park Theatre in 1838. The play was brought out at the Bowery Theatre in 1837, and the distribution included Messrs. Nicheuson (Pickwick), Judah (Sandgrass), Thayer (Jingle), Mitchell (Sam), Mrs. Walstein (Rachel), Miss A. Fisher (Emily).

BOZ; OR, A MAN OVERBOARD.

During the Dickens mania, in 1842, a comic sketch, entitled "Boz; or, A man Overboard," was produced with much success at the old Olympic Theatre. Mr. Horncastle appeared as Boz, and Mitchell as Sam Weller. Mr. Dickens witnessed this piece on its first night, and the Morning Rowdy of the period says he lent his overcoat to Mr. Horncastle to enable him to appear as Bozzy as possible.

NICHOLAS NICKLEBY.

"Nicholas Nickleby" played contemporaneously at the Olympic and the Park Theatres in December, 1838. Mr. John Brougham's dramatization was produced at the Olympic five days before the production of the play at the Park.—Young Mr. Wallack played Nicholas; Mitchell, Squeers; Lambert, Newman Noggs; Conner, Mantalini; Mrs. W. Sefton, Smike; Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Squeers; and Miss Ayers, Miss Price. The Drama produced at the Park Theatre was the most successful of the two. It was played by Messrs. (Ralph), Wheatley (Nicholas), Fisher (Squeers), Chippendale (Noggs), Placide (Browdie), Mrs. Richardson (Smike), Miss Cushman (Fanny Squeers), and Mrs. Pritchard (Miss Price). Mrs. Bernard was very successful at Barton's in 1852, as Fanny Squeers. Burton played Squeers; C. Fisher, Mantalini, and Lysander Thompson, Browdie. Boucicault's version, under the title of "Smike," performed at the Winter Garden, in 1859, is no doubt well remembered. Mr. T. Johnson played Squeers; Bourcicault, Mantalini; Jefferson, Noggs; H. Pearson, Browdie; Holland, Specimen Boy; Miss A. Robertson, Smike; Mrs. Blake, Mrs. Squeers; Mrs. J. A. Allen, Miss Mantalini.

OLIVER TWIST.

This story is as popular as a drama as the novel itself. The first dramatization was produced at the Park Theatre, in 1838, shortly after the withdrawal of "Nicholas Nickeleby," when Miss Charlotte Cushman electrified the town by her Nancy Sykes. She was really great in the character, and always considered it one of her best parts, as it certainly was. She was supported by Miss Richardson (Oliver), Mr. Peter Richings (Bill Sykes), and Mr. Sam Johnson (Artful Dodger.)

Messrs. Gann, Fisher, Placide, Povey, Chippendale and Wheatley were also included in the cast. The play had a very successful run. Later in the year it was produced at the Franklin Theatre, with Mr. John Sefton (of Jeremiah Twitcher memory) as Bumble. Burton played the same character at his own theatre in 1851. Boucicault arranged a version which was performed at the Winter Garden in 1860. Mr. J. W. Wallack, Jr., appeared as Fagin, the Jew, in which character he is without an equal on the stage. Miss Heron played Nancy Sykes. [Miss Lucille Western has great success in this character.] The cast also included Mr. J. Stoddart Holland, G. Jordan, T. Johnson, Miss Ione Burke and Mrs. Blake. The play was produced at the same theatre during Miss Cushman's brief engagement in 1861, when she played Nancy Sykes to crowded houses.

BARNABY RUDGE.

A dramatization of this novel was brought out at the New Chatham Theatre in September, 1841. The cast embraced Mrs. C. Thorne, Barnaby Rudge; Mr. Kirby, Old Rudge; Miss E. Mesteyer, Dolly Varden; Mrs. Judah, Mrs. Varden; Mrs. Blake, Mrs. Rudge; and Mrs. Herbert (Miss Miggs.)

DOMBEY AND SON.

Several dramas have been founded on this popular novel. Mr. Brougham was author of the first, which was produced at Burton's Theatre, July 24th, 1848, cast as follows: Varney, Dombey; Marshall, Carker; Brougham, Major Haystock; and, Jack Bunsby; Dunn, Walter Gay; Thayer, Solgills; Burton, Capt. Cuttle; (a great hit), O. B. Raymond, Toots; Mrs. A. Knight, Edith; Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Skenton; Miss Hill, Florence; Mrs. Brougham, Susan Nipper. Walcot's drama of "Edith, or Dealings with the Firm of Dombey & Son," obviously founded upon the novel, was produced at the Park Theatre, November 13, 1848. Mr. Placide played Cuttle; Mr. J. Gilbert, Dombey; Mr. W. Clarke, Carker; G. Barrett, Major Haystock; Wilcoi, Toots; Mrs. Shaw, Edith; Mis. Taylor, Susan Nipper; Mrs. Knight, Mrs. Brown. Later in the same year, inspired, doubtless, by the success of "Dombey & Son," Brougham produced, at Burton's, the "Capture of Captain Cuttle," Burton playing Cuttle; Nickerson, Jack Bunsby; Raymond, Toots; Grace, Feeder; Mrs. Vernon, Mrs. McStinger; Mrs. Brougham, Susan Nipper.

THE CHRISTMAS CAROL.

This was dramatized by Mr. Edward Sterling, and was produced at the Park Theatre, Christmas Night, 1845. The distribution included Messrs. Chippendale, Dyott, Crisp, Barry, Sperritt, Harrison, Fisher, Pearson, Mrs. Sperritt, Mrs. Abbott, and Mrs. Dyot, and the piece met with considerable success.

CRICKET ON THE HEARTH.

Albert Smith and Boucicault have both founded dramas upon this charming tale. Smith's drama was played with much success at the Park Theatre in 1848. Mrs. Dyott made a hit as Tilly Slowboy. Mr. G. Andrews played John Peerybingle; Bass, Caleb Plummer; Miss Crocker, Bertha, and Mrs Knight, Dot. Boucicault's drama ran at the Winter Garden in 1859, for over a month with great success. Mrs. John Wood's Tilly Slowboy was one of the sensations of the season. Pearson, Jefferson, A. A. Davenport, T. Johnson, Miss Agnes Robertson, Miss Sarah Stevens, and Mrs. Blake are also included in the cast. Next to his Solon Shingle, one of Mr. Owen's greatest successes at the Broadway Theatre, was his Caleb Plummer, in this play.

THE HAUNTED MAN.

One of the best of Mr. Dickens's Christmas stories was the subject of a drama entitled the "Haunted Man and the Ghost's Bargain." It was performed at the Bowery Theatre in 1849, by J. N. Scott, J. Gilbert, Misses Susan and Kate Denin, Miss Wemyss and Mrs. Gilbert.

DAVID COPPERFIELD.

"David Copperfield" was dramatized by Dr. Northall for Burton, who produced his drama December 30, 1850. Burton played Micawber with great success, supported by George Jordon as Copperfield, Blake as Pegotty, Bland as Rom, T. Johnson as Uriah Heep, Mrs. Sperritt as Mrs. Micawber and Mrs. Holman as Mrs. Steerforth. Brougham's dramatization was produced at his Lyceum January, 6, 1851, with Palmer as David, Brougham as Micawber, Owens as Uriah Heep, Lynne as Pegotty, Mrs. Vernonas Betsy Trotwood, Mrs. Blake as Mrs. Micawber, Miss Taylor as Agnes, Miss Horn as Rose Dartle, and Mrs. Brougham as Clara Pegotty. On the same night a dramatization was also produced at the Bowery Theatre. Miss Susan Denin, Charles Pope, J. R. Scott, G. W. Fenno, Mrs. H. Jordan, Mrs. Walcot, and Mrs. Wemyss played the leading parts.

THE BLEAK HOUSE.

Mr. John Brougham's dramatization of this novel was produced at Wallack's Theatre in October, 1853. Mr. Brougham himself played Sir Leicester Dedlock; Mr. Lester Wallack The Debilitated Cousin; Mr. F. N. Chippendale, Jarndyce; Mr. Reynolds, Richard Carstone; Dyott, Talking Horn; Mr. Walcot, Harold Skimpole; Mr. Blake, Turveydrop; Mr. Lysander Thompson, Inspector Bucket; Miss Keene, Lady Dedlock; Miss Teresa Esmond, Esther Summerson; Mrs. Conover, Ada Clare; Mrs. W. Isherwood, Volumnia; Mrs. Cramer, Mrs. Jellaby; Mrs. Stephens, Caddy Jellaby; Mrs. Brougham, Hortense.

OTHER PLAYS.

"Master Humphrey's Clock" was first produced in this city in 1840, and has been played at the Bowery in the past two or three seasons. "The Battle of Life" was brought out in the Bowery Theatre in 1846. Mr. George Fawcett Howe's dramatization of "Our Mutual Friend" was played at the Olympic in 1864, with Mrs. John Wood as Bella Wilfur, and a strong cast. An episode in this story has lately been dramatized by Mr. Chandos Fulton, for Miss Alice Kingsbury, the elfin star, under the title of "Jenny Wren, the Dolls' Dressmaker, and Her Friends."—New York Herald.

NOTICE TO SHIPPERS OF SPIRITS OF TURPENTINE.

The Seaboard Inland Air Line, Via Portsmouth, Va., is now prepared to ship Spirits Turpentine to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, its steamers having been arranged for that purpose.

This Air Line Route, from the fact of its avoiding transshipment from one Steamer to another, to which other lines are subject, and being the direct line between the Carolinas and the Northern Cities, with daily communication to Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York, and to Boston a Steamer every five days, offers great facilities for shipping, and is in advance of all other routes from three to five days and at as low rates.

In shipping from the Northern Cities, or from Carolina, be careful to ship via Portsmouth, and by the Steamship Lines connecting with and forming part of this Route.

From Boston, Merchants and Miner's Line, E. Sampson, Agent, end Central Wharf.

From New York, Old Dominion Steamship Company, Pier 37, North river, M. L. McCready President, Office 187 Greenwich street.

From Philadelphia, Clyde Steamers, 14 South Delaware Avenue, W. P. Clyde, Agent.

Annamessic Line, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Depot, J. L. Wilson, Agent.

All claims for loss, damage, or overcharge, promptly settled by applying to

JAS. MCCARRICK, Trace Agent,
Seaboard Inland Air Line, Portsmouth, Va.

The Seaboard and Roanoke Railroad and Bay Line, having been consolidated under one Management from Weldon to Baltimore, offer greater facilities to shippers of freight to and from Baltimore than any other line, and guarantees safety of freight and prompt settlement of all claims.

"Breathes there a man with soul so dead,

WM. A HEARNE, JNO. W. DUNHAM,
EDITORS.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 1, 1868.

In the Convention on Thursday, Hood, nigger, moved the consideration of a resolution hitherto introduced by him, providing for the appointment of a Committee of five, to ascertain and report the names of persons in the State, whose loyalty and approval of the Reconstruction Acts, entitled them to recommendation to Congress for relief from political disabilities, and demanded the previous question. At the request of Mr. Pool, of Pasquotank, he graciously withdrew the the demand, to allow that gentleman an opportunity to offer an amendment increasing the number of the Committee from five to eight—one for each judicial district in the State. The amendment was accepted, and the call for the previous question renewed. Mr. Durham asked that the demand be withdrawn, in order that he might offer an amendment to the resolution, appointing the Committee and defining its duties, requiring it to ascertain and report the names of all persons, disfranchised that they might be recommended to Congress, for the favor contemplated in the original resolution. This request was indignantly refused amid a storm of calls for the previous question from all parts of the hall.

To the want of courtesy and fair-dealing exhibited by the majority in the Convention, we have no desire to allude. Nor does it matter whether the Howard Amendment, which is claimed to work disfranchisement, is or is not a part of the Constitution of the United States.—What we do desire especially to call to the attention of the people of North Carolina is the animus displayed by the arrogant majority in this body. That majority by its action on Thursday has declared its unalterable opposition to the enfranchisement of those citizens of the State, who by reason of their talents, influence and worth, rose to position previous to the late struggle. Gentlemen whom the people of North Carolina have delighted to honor and promote—Graham and Manly, Howard and Davis, Vance and Bragg, and hosts of others, their peers in ability and purity of private character—these men are proscribed, debarred from participation in public affairs, denounced, and derided by men—no, not men—by things, having the shape but wanting the sentiments and passions of men, who by accident are invested with temporary authority in our midst.

And for what reason? The pretexts upon which this infamy is based, are that these gentlemen are disloyal to the government, and that their rehabilitation would be dangerous to its safety, and detrimental to its progress. Out with the charge! It is foully, infamously false. Herein lies the reason for your conduct. You fear them—your deeds are dark and you dread the light. And well may ye tremble! "Sorrow endureth for the night, but joy cometh in the morning." Soon your ears will be startled by the echoes of Democratic victories as they ring along the sky, telling in thunder tones the day of your downfall, and of the triumph of justice, law and order—when peace and harmony shall prevail in the land and the deeds of the wicked doer be sternly punished. Enjoy your brief authority. Revel in your power, but remember that retribution cometh surely, speedily and terrible.

We have space to make only the briefest allusion to the report presented by Maj. Graham and Capt. Durham, a minority of the committee on suffrage, dissenting from the views and recommendations of the majority of the committee. The position taken by these gentlemen is the position occupied by a very large majority of the white men of North Carolina, and they will commend their course in the Convention. Unqualified opposition to negro suffrage, and its consequence, social equality—this is the cardinal doctrine of our faith.

The Radical members of Congress evidently fear a decision of the Supreme Court, adverse to the validity of the Reconstruction acts. The bill requiring the concurrence of two-thirds of the members of the Court before any act of Congress shall be declared unconstitutional, as well as that stripping the Court of its appellate jurisdiction in cases arising under these acts are, of course, intended to prevent a decision. The report of the proceedings of Congress on Thursday discloses an other attempt to consummate this purpose. We allude to the resolution introduced by Mr. Scofield, requesting the Judiciary Committee to inquire into the truth of a statement made in the Washington Express, to the effect that Associate Justice Fields had publicly declared that the Court had determined the acts illegal and would so decide; and also instructing the committee, if the statement was true, to report whether the facts did not constitute a misdemeanor, punishable by impeachment.

It will matter very little whether Judge Fields made the remark or not. It is necessary to remove some member from the bench, holding his views, in order to destroy the anti-radical majority, and he has been selected as the victim. Evidence, if not existing, is easily manufactured, and the services of Stanton and Holt, who have had much experience in such work, can be easily secured for the accomplishment of this job.

Minority Report of the Committee on Suffrage.

The undersigned, a minority of the committee on "Suffrage and Eligibility to Office," regretting that they have been unable to concur with the majority of the committee, beg leave to submit the following report:

We cannot view, without serious apprehension, the admission to all the highest rights and privileges of citizenship of a race, consisting almost entirely of those recently emerged from slavery, and unfitted by previous education and habits of thought and self-reliance, for the intelligent discharge of the duties and responsibilities, which would devolve upon them.

We do not regard the right to vote as natural or inherent, but conventional merely—to be regulated in such way as will best promote the welfare of the whole community. Upon this principle, women and minors have been excluded. Is there any reason why the negro should be advanced to a higher position? While we do not deny that there are individuals of that class who might be expected to express their own convictions at the ballot-box, still the great mass of them are so ignorant and prejudiced that they easily become the dupes of designing adventurers and demagogues, and through secret associations, introduced from Northern States, merely follow instructions, and reflect the views of those who control them.

We believe that the blessings we have derived from our government have been due to the virtue, intelligence and independence of those invested with the right of suffrage, and we tremble for the safety of republican institutions, when it shall be determined to confer this trust upon those, who mentally and morally are unfit to administer it—"to confide the power of making laws to those, who have no property to protect, and to bestow the right to levy taxes upon those, who have no taxes to pay."

But it is said that, the proposed alteration is demanded by Congress, and is necessary to restore our State to constitutional relations with the Federal Government. It is certainly a singular demand that we should extend the elective franchise to them, who are inexperienced and little prepared for the ordinary business of life, that the government deems it necessary, through the Freedmen's Bureau, to exercise supervision and tutelage over them.

But we deny the power of Congress to prescribe to North Carolina who shall or shall not vote. This has always been recognized as one of those great rights reserved to the States; and, in fact, it is their privilege to prescribe, who shall vote for members of Congress—as the Constitution of the United States, Art. I, Sec. II, provides: "The House of Representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States; and the electors in each State shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the State Legislature."

Congress certainly recognized North Carolina as a State in proper constitutional relations when the ratification of the XIII Amendment by the Legislature of 1865-'66, was accepted, and also when the proposed XIV Amendment was submitted to the Legislature of 1866-'67, for ratification. We can, then, only regard the present measures as a punishment for our conduct on the latter occasion. Such legislation strikes us as ex post facto, tyrannical and unjust. We cannot consent that our State shall be degraded to an inferior position to her sisters—that she shall expunge from her Constitution clauses, excluding the negro from voting and holding office, which other States have indignantly refused to strike from their own. We refer especially to the Constitutions of Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois and New York. We do think that the requirement would come with much better grace if these and other States had altered their Constitutions, or if it was proposed to so amend the Constitution of the United States as to make the application universal.

Viewing the matter in every light that presents itself, and willing to extend to the negro population every right that legitimately results from the late war, or that is necessary to their security and happiness, we yet think that the welfare of both races is best promoted by retaining our present Constitution. We consider the whole scheme as intended to advance party purposes—in the expectation that the States of the South, being Africanized and Radicalized, may more than counterbalance the loss of electoral votes that will occur in other sections of the Union. We advise that North Carolina shall refuse to alter her Constitution under dictation from a Congress, composed of members, who have ceased to represent their constituents, and who, in defiance of the voice of the people as expressed in recent elections, still harden their hearts and devise new tasks for us. Let us rather trust to a returning sense of justice on the part of the Northern people, and that spirit of magnanimity which will revolt at the idea of "forcing the South to accept, in a huge mass, that which the North rejects in minute quantities." Let us act upon our own conscientious convictions of what is best for North Carolina, and while submitting patiently to the present military rule, not forget that freedom of opinion which is our birth right. If, then, negro suffrage and negro equality are forced upon us, we will not have consented to our own humiliation, and will at least, have preserved our honor and self-respect.

JOHN W. GRAHAM,
P. DURHAM.

BROWNLOW FOR GREENBACKS.—Gov. Brownlow, of Tennessee, writes as follows to the Tennessee Radical Convention:

"If I were a member of your convention I would endeavor to have incorporated into the platform you adopt a plank to the following effect: That the bonds and obligations of the General Government, which do not expressly stipulate the payment in coin in the acts authorizing their issuance, or on their face, should be paid in greenbacks or legal tenders, and that our delegates to the national convention be instructed to vote for a resolution in the national platform embracing this proposition."

A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes that boys who enter the Military Academy at West Point lose their morals and self-respect in a few months. The charge, serious as it is, is apparently supported at some length.

A Halifax, Nova Scotia, paper declares that Nova Scotia will certainly secede from the Dominion, the people having determined to rid themselves of the new Government at any cost.

Yale College has instituted a most sensible reform. The commencement exercises are to be cut down to sixteen speeches; these to be selected according to merit as orations, not according to scholarship.

An irreverent and anti-ritualistic Londoner was recently fined $50 for interrupting a clergyman with "a sort of noise like a turkey cock," which the reverend gentleman illustrated in court for the benefit of the judge and the amusement of spectators.

THE "JOSEPH'S COAT" CONVENTION!

Fifteenth Day's Performance!

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31st, 1867.

The performance began—we beg pardon!—The Convention was called to order at 11 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Warwick, a saddle colored preacher, delivered the usual prayer.

The Secretary read the journal; of course it had to be corrected, as heretofore.

Mr. Parker backed out from his vote in the negative on Hood's resolution, and was allowed to be recorded in the affirmative.

Capt. J. Q. A. Bryan presented a petition from the citizens of Wilkes, or a portion of them, asking the removal of certain officers. Referred.

Mr. Tourgee, judicial aspirant, presented a report from committee on towns, &c., asking to be discharged from the consideration of Eppes' resolution. The request was granted, and thus the poor Halifax preacher's attempt at legislation fell through. Try it again, old fellow! Niggers can make laws after a while.

Galloway, the Sentinel's exterminator, moved to lay upon the table, but withdrew it at the request of several.

Mr. Tourgee defended the resolution. He wished to remove all taint of a party measure, from the resolution passed the day before.

The hour for the special order having arrived, Mr. McDonald of Chatham moved to postpone for half an hour.

Mr. Abbott opposed.

The President stated that he thought that the Convention ought to go on with the business chalked out for it.

The motion to postpone was lost, and the Convention went into the Committee of the Whole.—Mr. Sweet in the chair.

The third section of the article on militia was read, together with the pending amendment of Gen. Abbott.

Mr. Rodman moved to strike out the entire section. Agreed to.

Mr. Jones of Washington was opposed to the fifth section, and moved to strike it out. He had never seen the use of an Adjutant General.

Gen. Abbott thought that the State would be a laughing-stock without an Adjutant General. He had been Adjutant General of New Hampshire for six years. (Is the office vacant now, and could'nt the General get it?—REP.)

Messrs. Heaton and Rodman favored the creation of the office. The former related an anecdote on Tom Corwin, at which some of the del-e-gates (as one of the Conventionists terms them) were much amused.

The section was stricken out.

Mr. Rodman moved to strike out the sixth section. Agreed to.

Capt. Bryan's article began to look pretty badly cut up.

By Mr. Rich, a resolution requesting the Committee on Governor, &c., to inquire into the expediency of conferring the veto power upon the Governor. Lies over.

Mr. Tourgee offered a resolution instructing the committee provided for by Hood's resolution, to petition Congress for the removal of the disfranchisement from persons who were Union men during the war, though they were not now supporting the Reconstruction acts. The rules were suspended, and the resolution put upon its passage.

Mr. Durham offered an amendment, providing that the committee make the request for all disfranchised citizens.

Mr. Durham spoke in favor of the amendment and resolution. He wanted to know if the Convention desired that Union men, who were not in accord with the radicals, should be disfranchised. This word "loyalty" had been perverted more than any word in the English language. If it meant a support to the degrading, unconstitutional acts of Congress, he was not a loyal man. (The reporter's late entrance prevented a full report of the scathing remarks of Mr. D.)

Mr. Hodnett, thought this the most important question which would be submitted to the Convention. He has been a Union man all his life, but he wanted a Union of affection, and did not favor the whole of the Reconstruction Acts.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to strike out section 7, but the motion did not originate from the right source, so the Convention rejected it; a division being called for, Messrs. Ashley and Watts, counted the members with their usual ability. They are good countists, very.

Mr. Rodman suggested that the section wasn't sensible as it stood, and advised Capt. Bryan to insert "militia" in the place of same. Adopted. This terminated the militia discussion, and as there was no further business, on motion of Mr. Tourgee, the committee rose and recommended the adoption of the article.

J. W. Hood, ginger-colored, advised the Committee to also recommend the adoption of the report upon the executive.

Mr. Sweet reported from the committee of the whole.

Mr. Heaton moved that the report of the committee upon the executive department be engrossed for final reading and passage; also, same motion upon the militia article. Both adopted.

Here the following occurred:

Galloway, saddle-colored, called attention to the report in this morning's Carolinian, in which, Harris had been styled "nigger." He wanted the reporter of the Carolinian, if there was one, expelled. If the Convention would not give him redress, he would seek it elsewhere.

Harris, burnt-umber, mentioned the various kinds of reports in the different papers. He did not think there was a gentleman in this State who upheld the Carolinian. He considered the word "nigger" more applicable to the editors, or the person who reported it. Such phrases were not used among gentlemen in North Carolina. The term was borrowed from Northern Copperheads. He didn't approve of contending with blackguards.

Mr. Ashley stated, upon the statement of the Carolinian's reporter, that he had not written the report published that morning.

(Here the reporter saw that the statement would seem to put him in opposition to the sentiments of the report, and, to place himself in a true light before the President, he showed to him the first page of his notes—substantially the same as the first part of this report—and remarked that he supposed that the President would consider it disrespectful or insulting, and that he might expel him, if he wanted to, he didn't care. He then resumed his seat.)

The President proceeded to address the Convention, and, at the close, expelled the reporter. He desired the notes to be read from the Secretary's desk, but the reporter stated that they were merely rough notes, and that their substance would be in the North Carolinian of the next day.

Here the report of Mr. Busbee ceased.

We learn that little of importance was enacted after the expulsion of our reporter. The excitement incidental to that great feat was too much for the nerves of delegates, and it was deemed best to cut out several acts and to bring the performance to a close, which the manager proceeded to do in a very excited manner.

In the Atlanta Convention last week, a colored delegate grew excited, and said: "May God have mercy," when he was rapped to order by the chairman, who stated that "the person the gentleman called upon was not in the house."

In St. Louis, a relic of the classic age is said to have been found, being a dog's collar, supposed to have belonged to Julius Cæsar, from the fact of its having his name engraved on it.

The New York Tribune thus commences an article: "The New York Times, which we regard now as the ablest and most effective "Democratic paper in the country," &c., &c.

Says the Tribune, "there is a vast amount of stationery supplied to Congress, which the members would be much more stationary if they did not drink."

Congress

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.

Senate—Ohio's withdrawal of her assent to the Amendment known as the Howard Amendment, created a sensation.

Members expressed the opinion that the assent of the State could not be withdrawn. Hon. Reverdy Johnson agreed therein.

The Supplimental Reconstruction Bill was resumed. No action taken. The remainder of the session was devoted to the affairs of the District of Columbia.

House—Mr. Eliot, of Mass., reported a bill continuing the Freedman's Bureau.

The resolutions of the Ohio Legislature withdrawing the assent of that State to the Howard Amendment was presented. Referred to the Judiciary Committee, with instructions to report upon the legal effect of the act of the Legislature.

The report of the Committee of Conference on the Cotton Tax—relieving imported Cotton from duty, after November next, and abolishing the tax on cotton raised after 1867—was adopted by a vote of 104 to 43.

The case of John Young Brown, representative from Kentucky, denied his seat on a charge of disloyalty, was discussed until adjournment.

The McCardle Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.

In the Supreme Court to-day, the counsel for the Government in ex parte McCardle made a motion for dismissal on the following grounds: First, want of jurisdiction; and, secondly, because the appeal is from a judgment of a United States Circuit Court in a case of original jurisdiction and not in a case in which the Circuit Court held appellate jurisdiction only; thirdly, because the Circuit Court which issued the writ of Habeas Corpus had no jurisdiction of the case or of any proceeding under any law of Congress. Continued by agreement until Friday.

South Carolina Convention.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 31st.

Nothing of special importance done in the Convention to-day. It has adjourned until Monday. Twelve thousand dollars in State Bonds have been received to pay the expenses of the Convention. The military authorities have ordered the arrest of young Mackey, a son of Dr. A. G. Mackey, President of the Convention, for the assault committed on a reporter on Monday.

Virginia Convention.

RICHMOND, Jan. 31.

The Convention adopted several additional articles of the report of the Judiciary Committee. One of them provides for a settlement with the State of West Virginia, in regard to her proportion of her State debt, and appropriates the amount when paid to the payment of the public debt of the State. The report of the Committee on suffrage will come up next week. There are three reports on the subject. The majority report favors the disfranchisement of all disfranchised by the Reconstruction act. A substitute will be presented by a Republican member, and a third report will be submitted by the Conservative members of the Committee.

Georgia Convention, &c.

ATLANTA, Jan. 31,

The Convention completed the bill of rights to-day. Relief was discussed until the hour of adjournment, without definite results.

LATEST NEWS TO THE FARMERS OF North Carolina.

Your attention is called to my large stock of Agricultural Implements, Iron Steel, &c., &c.

Corn and Cotton Planters, Corn Shellers, Hay, Shuck and Corn Stalk Cutters, Fan Mills, Plows, of every kind, Harrows and Cultivators, Scrapes, Shovels Forks, Brier Hooks, Iron Axles, Springs, Cart & Wagon Boxes, &c.

I call particular attention to BILLUP'S CENTREBOARD COTTON SCRAPER, and to BILLUP'S DIXIE PLOW. The first is warranted to be the best Scraper ever yet invented, and the Farmers are requested to test its merits in connection with any other kind. The Dixie Plow is freer from choking than any other yet made; will pass through the ground with less power, and do better work than any other kind. This is no vain boast. 'Tis easy to claim superiority; hence I ask a trial.

If Farmers are not satisfied, the money will be refunded.

The North Carolinian.

Raleigh, Saturday, February 1, 1868.

☞ The North Carolinian is published every morning in the building North East corner of Fayetteville and Hargett Streets—up stairs.

TO OUR EXCHANGES.

We again request our exchanges to note the change of the North Carolinian from Wilson to Raleigh, and to govern themselves accordingly.

Our readers will bear with us for any want of interesting selected matter and State news in our columns, until our exchanges shall have reached us.

PERSONAL.

Our friend and former associate, Capt. Wm. Biggs, of the Tarboro' Southerner, whose journey hitherward was annonnced some days since, has, at length, arrived, and paid us a brief visit yesterday.

It is sufficient for the "knowing ones" about Tarboro', that we simply say that he came by way of Weldon, over the Raleigh and Gaston railroad, and the delay was caused somewhere in the vicinity of the Henderson depot.

DR. J. H. BAKER OF EDGECOMBE—CORRECTION.

In our report of the Convention proceedings of Thursday, the reporter did this gentleman an unintentional injustice, which we are glad to correct.

On the resolution of Hood, (nigger,) raising a committee of five to ascertain the names of loyal persons entitled to be relieved of political disabilities, Dr. Baker is reported as voting for it as amended by Mr. Pool, whereas he did not vote at all on the resolution, for the reason that it was not comprehensive enough to embrace the platform on which he was elected a delegate to the Convention.

We trust this correction will suffice to place the delegate from Edgecombe, right before his constituents.

EXPELLED.

By reference to the report of the proceedings of the Convention, on yesterday, our readers will see that the reporter of our paper was expelled from the floor of that most august body.

The editors of the North Carolinian desire to express their high appreciation of the motives which induced the opposition to the act. They desire, also, to tender their very warmest thanks to the majority of the members of the Convention for their demand for the expulsion. Such an act, from such a body, will accredit them as gentlemen wherever they may go.

Our readers need have no apprehension concerning a report of the proceedings of the Convention. They shall have it, if we have to hire a Radical member to make it for us.

A NEW PAPER.

We have received No. 1., of Vol. 1., of the Plaindealer, a Weekly newspaper, edited and published in the town of Wilson, N. C., by C. S. McDaniel, Esq., formerly the publisher of the North Carolinian. The Plaindealer is a large and handsome sheet, thoroughly independent in its tone and flies for its motto: Freedom of Conscience—Free Press—Free Trade and Freedom of White Men." Under its present management, the Plaindealer must become quite popular in Eastern North Corolina. We know McDaniel, and we know that if the people of his section will properly sustain him, he will spare no effort to please and instruct them.

PIETY AT FEVER HEAT.

Cape Cod sends us a delightful specimen of a lamb from the Puritan fold, in the person of the Reverend S-weet S-cented Ashley, a venerable pilgrim from her shores.

During the discussion evoked by the proposal for the expulsion of our reporter on yesterday, Mr. Ashley became very severe upon the editors of this paper, delivering a eulogy in admirable consonance with the teachings of his patron saint, John Brown, whose soul is just now engaged in the pleasant pursuit of "marching on." Mr. Ashley as "the pioneer of learning, intelligence and refinement in North Carolina," may be a distinguished success, but as a "good Samaritan," we fear he is a lamentable failure. Instead of pouring oil and wine on our wounds, he discharged a full vial of Radical hate and venom on our devoted heads.

We could smile at the puny efforts of this pigmy to crush us, but our pity is too deep for levity. Forgetting his sacred calling, he has descended into the cess-pool of nigger politics, and, obeying the mandates of his masters, he hurls epithets and abuse at us in a manner which leads us to believe him better acquainted with the language of the brothel than with that of the book which he professes to expound, and which teache s us to bless those that curse us, and do to them that dispitefully use us. We good can withstand, we trust, the loyal attacks of the Reverend Radical. We have no manner of objection to his abuse. We shoud be heartily ashamed of ourselves if a single act of our lives should receive his approbation. Mr. Ashley and his abettors can certainly not drive us from any position we have taken in regard to the Convention of which he is a member.

CITY AND STATE.

Council of State.

The Council of State convened in this city on yesterday, for the purpose of recommending a Judge, vice Hon. D. G. Fowle, resigned. Not a quorum present.

Sheriff of Wake.

E. H. Ray, Esq., Sheriff of this County, tendered his resignation to Gen. Canby, several weeks since. He received notice on the night of the 30th inst., of its acceptance by Gen. Canby.

Mr. Rufus K. Ferrell has been appointed to the vacancy.

A Youthful Offender.

Archie Perkins, a diminutive, but precocious darkey of twelve summers, anticipating a sudden influx of "greenbacks," entered the store of Mr. J. Weil, on Fayetteville Street yesterday, and appropriated to his exclusive use a supply of pocket-books, not warranted by the present demand.

For this he was hauled up before the Mayor and the charge proven, but on account of his youth, and inasmuch as Mr. Weil had recovered the property he declined to prosecute the youthful and daring Archie, and he was released on promise of future good behavior.

Abuse of Kindness.

The prisoners confined in the city guard house on Thursday night, were very gay and gleesome through the early part of the evening, but towards day they complained bitterly of the cold there being no means of warming the cells. Officer Moore, of the night police, in view of the intensity of the weather, kindly permitted the prisoners to go into the guard room to warm themselves by the fire, kept there for the benefit of the guard, when one of the prisoners, a soldier, arrested the evening before for stealing from a mulatto woman, took advantage of the kindness of and made his escape. His name is ——Davis and he is a member of Co., E, 5th Cavalry.

Interest and Competition in the Show Business.

Well, the Circus is coming, to begin with.—Considerable interest is manifested in that portion of the Show already to hand—the bills and bill posters. The pictures are very pretty, indeed, and the forerunning artists of this great moral exhibition, are, we judge adepts in the art of paper hanging.

We noticed yesterday morning some fifty or more idle negroes observing with grave and earnest interest, the remarkable feat of pasting paper illustrated with pictures, representing men and beasts in every conceivable and impossible attitude on brick walls, about the city. We endeavored to associate the interest of the negro with the show and show pictures, but failing retired from the scene seriously revolving the disloyal thought, whether it would not be better for these poor starving people, to go to work instead of idling about the streets.

Thinking, perhaps, that the show might have drawn somewhat from the State House, we moved up in that direction, but found no dimunition in the audience. The lobbies are still crammed and the galleries packed. We apprehend that our special friend, Dan Castello, will find a showman and competitor worthy of his steel, in the person of Mr. Manager Cowles, who, we learn, designs giving two performances each day hereafter.

Delegates to the Conservative Convention, to be held on the 5th of February, in this city, will be passed over the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad for one fare.

The Conservative citizens of Rowan County, will hold a meeting on Monday, February 3d, to appoint delegates to the State Convention which meets in this city on the 5th.

Capt. Benj. Robinson, formerly editor of the Wilmington Dispatch, but lately a resident lawyer in the city of New York, has returned to North Carolina, and will practice his profession in Fayetteville.

Bernard, of the Wilmington Star, has been presented with a bottle of "Sparkling Scuppernong Wine," manufactured by the Wilmington Wine Company. This Company is fully in operation in our sister city, and promises to become a most profitable investment.

The proceedings of the Connecticut Democratic State Convention must have been marked by the utmost harmony and good feeling. The Convention met on Thursday, perfected its organization, prepared a platform of principles and nominated its ticket of State officers. English, the present incumbent, was re-nominated for re-election.

Capt. John R. Turnbull, while gallantly commanding a company of the 12th N. C. Regiment in the late war, was painfully wounded by a minnie ball. The ball entered just below the right clavicle, and remained in his body, causing great inconvenience and pain. On Tuesday last, says the Warrenton Courier, the ball was extracted by Dr. Geo. A. Foote, without the slightest pain. Captain Turnbull was a member of the last Legislature, and his numerous friends will be rejoiced to learn that he has been relieved from a source of so much annoyance.

Col. Wharton J. Green, who commanded a battalion in the late war, is living in Warren County, in this State. A correspondent of the Warrenton Courier, says:

"With a liberality rarely equalled, he devotes a considerable portion of his ample income to the education of the poor white children of the County, and at his own personal cost defrays all the expenses of two schools, (free,) in Warren County, and at the same time contributes to supply the very needy with clothing &c., necessary to their comfort. Aided by the generous ladies of his family he is laying up for himself a reward in the respect and affection of the rising generation which will attend him through life, and transmit his name with honor to those who shall come after them. Should every one in our downtrodden South imitate his example as far as they have anything to spare, our land would soon become the home of a happy and enlightened people; under whose culture the desolate and waste places would "blossom as the rose," and in spite of Radical outrage and misrule we should take our proper place in the ranks with the most prosperous states of the Earth. Let him who reads go and do likewise—in proportion to his means." P.

40 YEARS.

DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of l fe retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pill , and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.

There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been used as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of utility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretotore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.

They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.

Price—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $17. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:

Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.

I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.

Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.

I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.

THE FIRE ON THE HEARTH.

There is a luxury rare in the carpet of Brussels,
And splendor in pictures that hang on the wall,
And grace in the curtain, with rainbow-hued tassels,
And brilliance in gaslight, that flashes o'er all;
But give me the glow of the bright-blazing fire,
That sparkles and snaps as it echoes your mirth,
And leaps, in its joy, up the chimney still higher,
When the cold winds without make us draw near the hearth:
The old-fashioned fire, the cheerful wood-fire,
The maple-wood fire that burns on the hearth.

As I feel its warm glow, I remember my childhood,
And the circle of loved ones that drew round our board;
The winter eve sports, with the nuts from the wildwood,
The apples and cider from cellars well stored,
I hear in its roar the wild shouts of my brother,
And the laugh of my sisters, in innocent mirth,
And the voice of my sire, as he reads to my mother,
Who knits by the fire-light that glows from the hearth:
The old open fire, the health-giving fire,
The home-cheering fire that glows on the hearth.

It reminds us of friends that we draw to the nearer
When the winds of misfortune blow heavy and chill,
And feel with each blast, they are warmer and dearer,
And ready to help us and comfort us still—
Friends that never grow cold until the long day is ended,
And the ashes are laid to their rest in the earth,
d the spirit, still glowing, to God hath ascended,
To rekindle new fires, like the coal on the hearth;
Then give me the fire, the fresh-glowing fire,
The bright open fire that burns on the hearth.

Jefferson Davis.

Letter to the Citizens of Jackson, Louisiana—He is Nominated for the Presidency of the Texas Pacific Railroad.

In a very courteous and cordial letter, dated January 18th, the citizens of Jackson, Louisiana, proffered their hospitalitv to Mr. Davis, while he was sojourning for a few days at West Feliciana. The Ex-President responded as follows:

WEST FELICIANA, LA., January 18, 1868.

GENTLEMEN:—I am deeply gratified for your very kind letter of this date, and assure you that it would give me great pleasure to accept your invitation. My engagements require me to leave for Mississippi so soon that it will not be in my power to visit you, and again look upon a place associated with many happy memories. Your sufferings and losses have been to me ever present through all the trial to which you so feelingly refer. The desolation which everywhere presents itself in that once prosperous country, fills my heart with sorrow; but I hope and trust a better time will soon come to us. The patient fortitude, the cheerful energy, and manly virtue which our people displayed in the depth of their misfortune, cannot fail to bring the due reward.

Accept for yourselves and those you represent the expression of my life-long devotion, and my earnest prayer, which has so long been daily offered, that the Father will restore our stricken land in the way which to His wisdom seems the best. I am, most cordially,

Your friend,
JEFFERSON DAVIS.

As explanatory of the allusion of Mr. Davis to remembrances of the past, it may be proper to state that he was at one period of his life a student in Jackson, and that an elder brother and a sister were members of that community.

[From the New Orleans Picayune, January 22.]

The Texas Press warmly seconds our suggestion of Mr. Jefferson Davis for President of the great railroad that is to be hence to the Pacific, but is first to unite us with Houston, Columbus, Austin, San Antonio, etc.

The Vicksburg, Mississippi, papers announce the arrival of Mr. Davis at the residence of his brother, Joseph Davis, near that city, on January 22, where he is at present sojourning.

The Brave Wife of an Ignoble Husband.

Some weeks ago Fred Douglass, the famous nigger, made a speech in West Chester, Pennsylvania, to a mob of blacks and others. Previous to his arrival, Hon. John Hickman, a member elected to the Assembly, invited the sable orator to make him a visit and consider his house a home during his stay which invitation Fred coolly accepted. Hickman at once put his best chamber in order and made extensive preparation for his guest, in spite of all that his wife could do or say. But she bided her time. A woman, especially when she is in the right is never without her resources. So when the great Douglass was announced, and, hat in hand, was making his most elaborate bow, she met him at the door and peremptorily ordered him out of the house. He did not "stand upon the order of his going, but went at once!" Long may Mrs. Hickman rule the mistress of her house; and in the good time coming, when women get their "rights," may she be sent to the Assembly by the voters of West Chester in the place of her unworthy husband.

A Virginia Artist.

Among the "notes on art" in the New York Herald of Monday, the following mention is made of a new picture by Mr. William Washington, a young gentleman of distinguished talents, whose pictures during the war are well known in this city: "Mr. Washington has nearly completed another church interior—'A Baptism in Grace Church.' The light that streams through the colored windows, the gay dresses of ladies and children, the architectural beauties of this most dicturesque of our New York churches, the babe, its mother, father, grandmother and nurse, the faithful portrait of Rev. Dr. Morgan, and, breifly, all the accessories of the scene, are admirably rendered."—Richmond Dispatch.

The Philadelphia News, very truly says: If Congress could only be induced to abandon its wild crusade against the people of the Southern States, there are thousands of splendid opportunities for northern men to make fortunes with very moderate investments. The people of Virginia, and, indeed, of all the Southern States, are extremely anxious for Northern men to settle among them, and, whilst they very properly detest the political tricksters from the North who are riding the nigger there, they would welcome industrious business men with open arms, and give them good bargains.

A young Swiss farmer carries off the prize for cool cruelty. In order to please his mistress, he dosed his wife with strychnine, and, when the poison began to operate, lay down by her side, watched her agonies, and calmly handed her water from time to time, as she asked for it, until death ensued.

General Longstreet called on General Hancock, in New Orleans, the other day. The latter was entertaining some friends at the time, and, introducing his visitor, said: "Ladies and gentlemen, allow me to introduce to you a gallant gentleman, to whom I am indebted for an ungraceful limp, and whom I had the misfortune to wing in the same combat."

A bill has been introduced in the New York Legislature providing that it shall be unlawful for one first cousin to engage or agree to marry another first cousin of the same consanguinity. Any person violating the proposed law may be punished by fine of not more than $1,000, or imprisonment for not longer than one year, or both fine and imprisonment.

40 YEARS.
DEEMS' Southern Hepatic Pills, are made and sold by the discoverer, that old and well-tried remedy for all diseases caused by DISEASED LIVER, which is attended with all the symptoms of Consumptions. In 1825 the Discoverer was reduced to a mere skeleton, and was pronounced by three of the most skillful physicians of one of our largest cities, to be in an advanced stage of Consumption, and beyond cure. He then began to try experiments on himself, and after many efforts discovered (by the help of an Indian) the remedy which wrought in him a perfect cure. He is now in the 78th year of his age, and at this advanced stage of life retains an excellent constitution. In 32 years itinerating in the ministry, he has seen more than a thousand persons, who were given up to die of Consumption as beyond cure, dragging out a miserable existence, not knowing what ailed them, they were cured by these Hepatic Pill, and afterwards enjoyed the most perfect health.
There is in these Pills a peculiar combination with an article which has probably never before been proposed as a medicine. They are highly strengthening, and mild in their action on the bowels. In the preparation of these very superior and excellent Pills, no cost or trouble is spared to insure the greatest possible degree of perfection, in point of nifility, excellence and comfort; the advantage in these Pills, therefore, is that a cure must be radical and complete, without the necessity of incorporating such drugs into our Pills as to break down the system in one part to remove the disease in another, and leave the patient to groan under worse diseases than heretofore. Where these Pills are known, especially in the Southern States, where they have been used so extensively, they need no recommendation, their merits are so well known by their results, which has given them a reputation that has brought them into great demand. They are therefore destined to be, at no distant day, the only remedy recognized and used by the people where billious diseases are so prevalent.
They can be sent to any point in the United States by mail or express.
Price—25 cents per box, $2 50 per doz. By the gross, $18. The cash must either accompany the order for the Medicine, or it will be sent C. O. D. Address

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE WORST CASES OF SCROFULA. READ THE STATEMENT BELOW, AND DESPAIR NOT.

WILSON COUNTY, Sept. 10, 1867.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE:
Dear Sir—My youngest daughter, aged five years, has been dreadfully afflicted with Scrofula nearly all her life. I tried a great many Physicians, but without relieving her much; in fact, most of them said there was no hope of cure.—During the last Spring she was worse than ever, her body and limbs being covered with sores and blotches—with face and eyes badly ulcerated and swollen. Whilst in this condition, I was advised by Dr. L. A. Stith to try your Rosadalis. I at once procured three bottles, and commenced giving it to her. The effect was magical. In less than a month, to my great astonishment, she was entirely well.
I am, sir,
Yours, with respect and gratitude,
W. W. BURNETT.

ROSADALIS CURES ALL SKIN DISEASES.

WILSON, N. C., Sept. 15, 1867.

DR. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir:—In 1862 my son, now aged five years, was vaccinated with what proved to be impure matter, which completely destroyed his health. He has been afflicted with an inveterate and extremely troublesome Eruption of the Skin, sometimes breaking out in sores, &c. Rosadalis was prescribed by my family physician—Dr. A. D. Moore. After taking it a few weeks, my son became and remains entirely well.
Yours truly,
J. B. DANIEL.

This is to certify that I was cured of Chronic Liver Complaint by Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, after having been confined to my bed and house for a long time, and trying various medicines without benefit.
I know of several others in this County, cured through the use of the Rosadalis, and it can be found in nearly every house in my neighborhood, and they all praise it as a great medicine.
THOMAS THORN.
Greene county, August 14, 1867.

ROSADALIS IS A POTENT REMEDY IN ALL CHRONIC DISEASES.

From G. W. Blount, Esq., Attorney at Law, Wilson, N. C.

I have been cured of Chronic Inflamation of the ear and Partial Deafness, of ten years' standing, by ROSADALIS. GEO. W. BLOUNT.

ROSADALIS WILL CURE THE VERY WORST CASES OF CHRONIC RHEUMATISM.

I hereby certify that I was cured of long standing Chronic Rheumatism, by taking four bottles of Dr. Lawrence's ROSADALIS.
JAMES WILLS.
Wilson, N. C., May 6, 1867.

☞ The ROSADALIS thoroughly eradicates every kind of humor and bad taint, and restores the entire system to a healthy condition.
IT IS PERFECTLY HARMLESS, never producing the slightest injury.
☞ It is not a Secret Quack Remedy. The articles of which it is made are published around each bottle, and it is used and endorsed by the leading Physicians everywhere it is known.
